The Three Wise Men

Three wise men from the Far East looked at the skies and saw a special star.

They knew the star was an important sign. They wanted to follow it to see where it led.

Riding on their camels, the wise men travelled for many days and nights, following the star.

Soon they arrived in Jerusalem. They heard people talking about the angel's visit to the shepherds. They also heard about Baby Jesus being born in a stable in Bethlehem.

At the time, King Herod was the king of the Jews.

He heard about the wise men looking for Baby Jesus. He was angry.

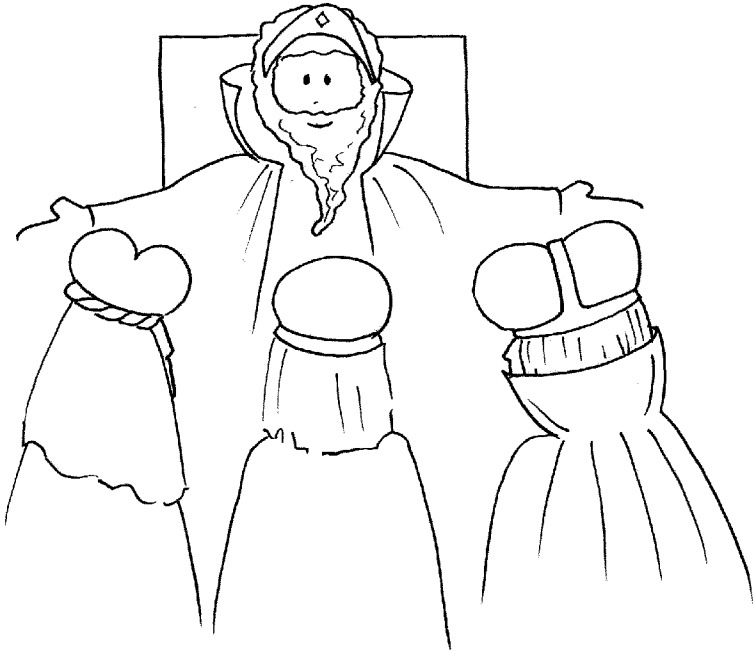

He thought that Baby Jesus might take his kingdom from him.

So, King Herod met the three wise men.

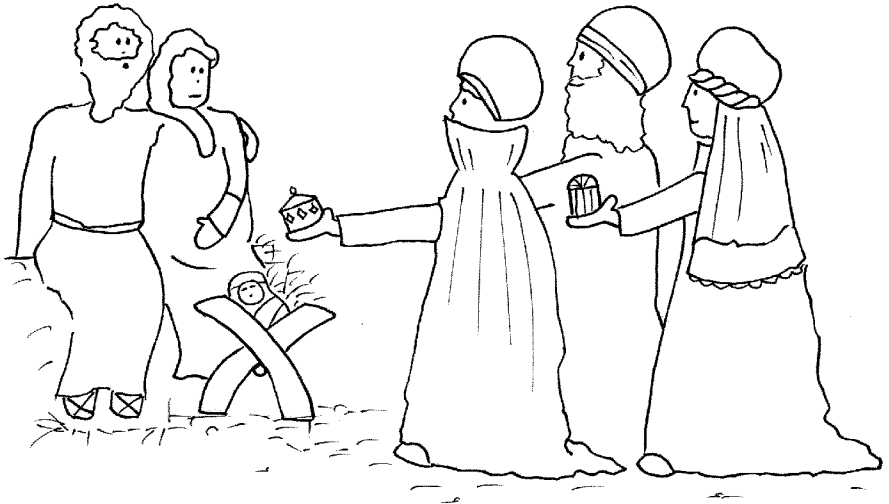

Herod told them that he wanted to worship the baby too. He asked them to tell him where the baby was.

King Herod wanted to kill Baby Jesus, but the three wise men didn't know.

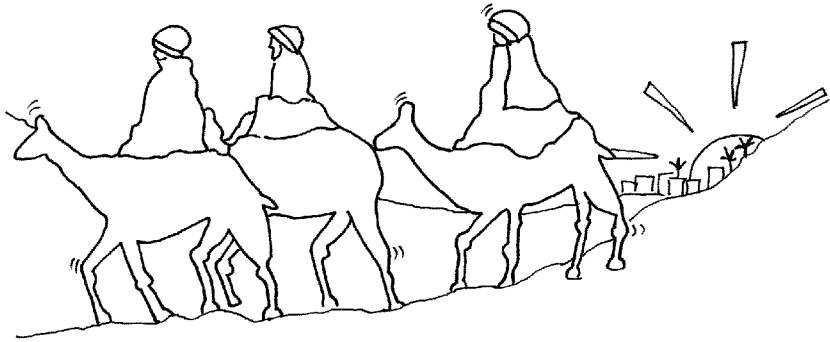

The three wise men left King Herod.
They followed the star and found the stable.

The wise men went to Baby Jesus and worshipped him. They gave him lovely presents.

That night, the three wise men had a dream. God warned them not to see King Herod and to go home.

The wise men woke up and left Bethlehem quickly.

That same night, Joseph had a dream with a message from God. God told him that Herod's soldiers were looking for the Baby Jesus to kill him.

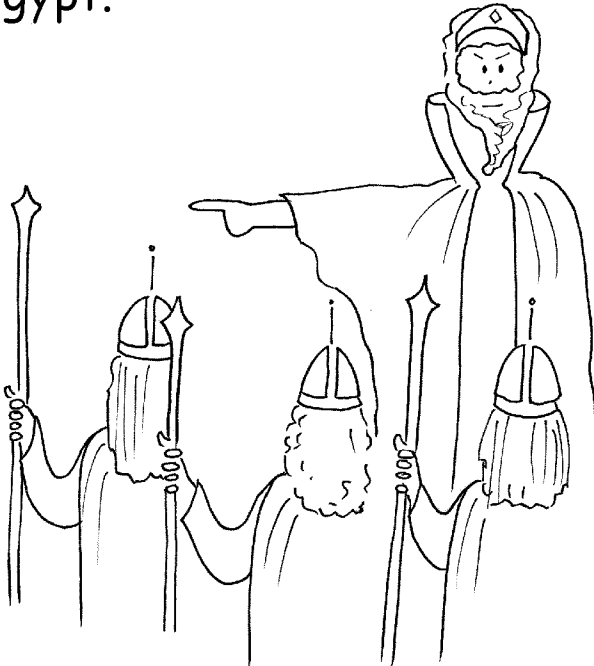

Straight away, Joseph woke up and woke Mary. They gathered their things and took the Baby Jesus to Egypt.

King Herod was very angry when the three wise men did not come back to him.

He told his soldiers to kill all baby boys in Bethlehem who were aged two years old and under.

Jesus was safe with Mary and Joseph in Egypt.
