Simon and Brian were coming home from school. They walked past a shop.

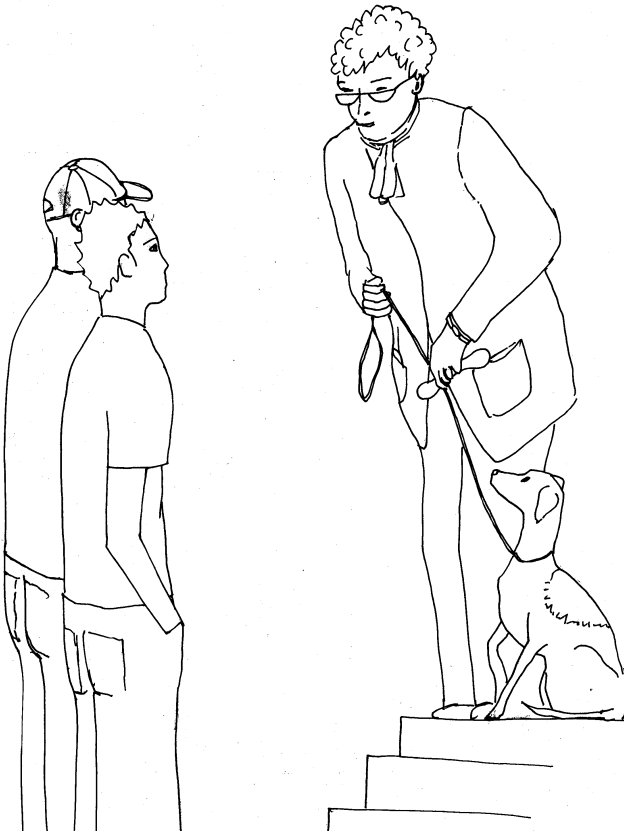

Simon stopped and looked at an advert in the shop window. It said, 'Dog walker needed. Will pay £5. If interested, go to 7 Berry Road.'

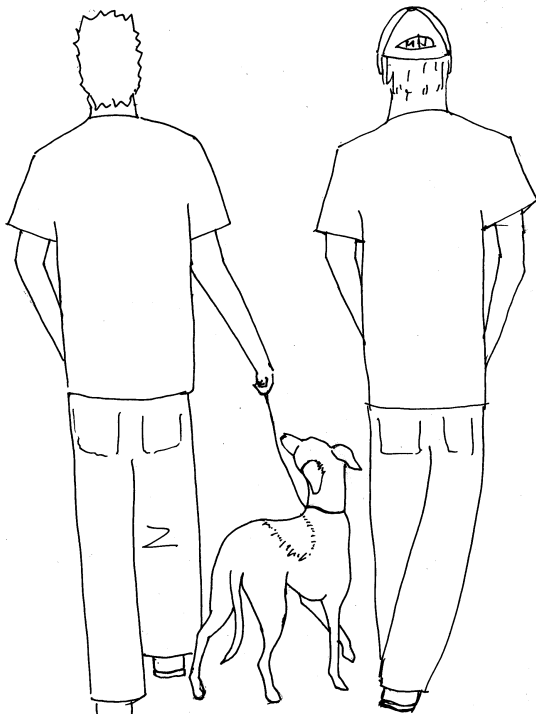

Simon said, "This is good. I can do it. I need the money for my Gameboy." Brian nodded, "I will go with you."

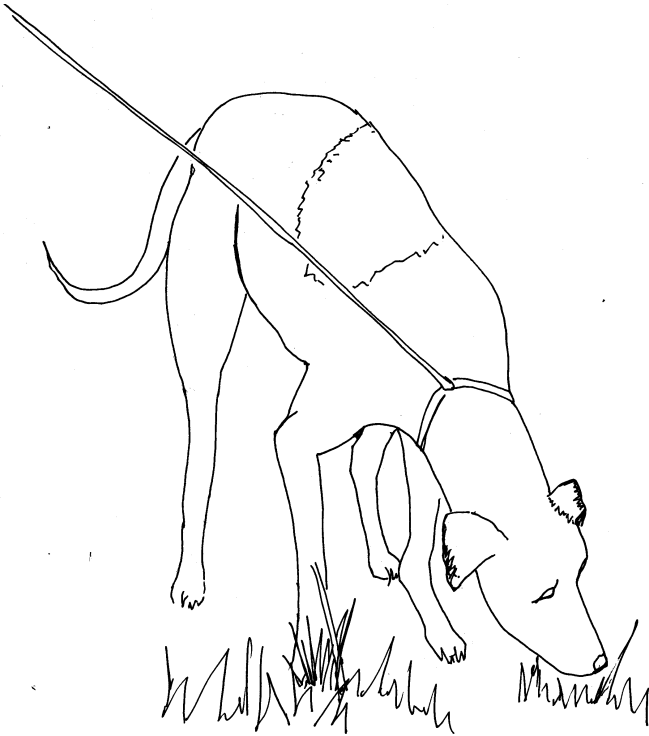

Mrs Gregory lived at 7 Berry Road. She explained to Simon and Brian what they had to do. The dog's name was Pickle

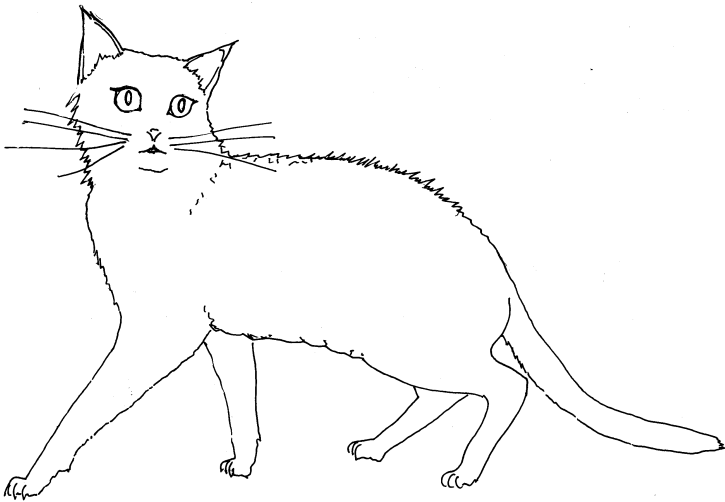

They took Pickle out to the park for a walk. Mrs Gregory told them that they had to keep Pickle on the lead.

Pickle was good. Simon held the lead and he found Pickle strong.
The lead was long, short and long.

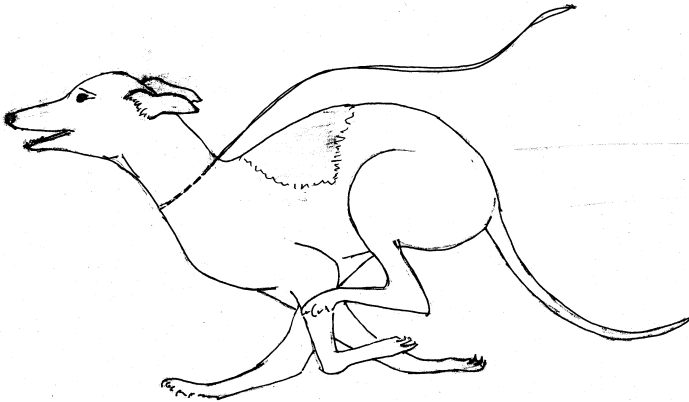

When Simon and Brian were walking Pickle, a cat strolled by. It was slim and black. Pickle looked at the cat. The cat looked back. Everything was still.

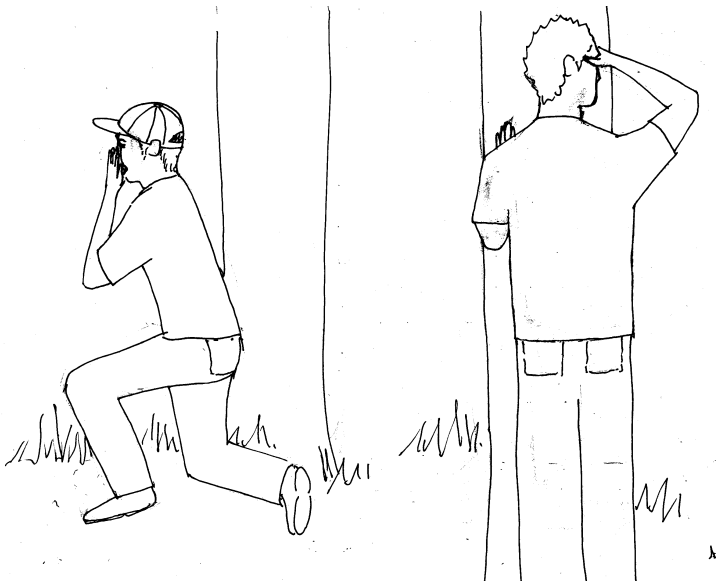

Suddenly, Pickle ran after the cat. The cat shot off quickly. Simon was taken by surprise and he held the lead. Pickle barked and barked.

Brian asked, "Are you all right?"
Simon nodded and held onto the lead. The lead stretched and snapped! Pickle went off. The boys looked at each other with mouths open.

Pickle was nowhere to be seen. He had vanished. Simon and Brian ran here and there. They shouted, "Pickle, Pickle!" After one hour, they gave up. Simon said, "We have to go and see Mrs Gregory."

They were really worried as they arrived at 7 Berry Road. Brian knocked on the door and they heard barking! Mrs Gregory opened the door and Pickle was with her.

Simon and Brian were so relieved.
They explained what happened.
Mrs Gregory said, "It's not your fault. I should have bought a new lead." Simon got his £5.
